A COLOR QUESTION.

Children Refused Admittance On Ground They Have Negro Blood.

(By Associated Press.)
ASHEVILLE, N. C., October 12.—Robert Gilliand to-day instituted mandamus proceedings to compel the Buncombe county Board of Education to admit his six children to the public schools of the county. They were recently dismissed from a county school on the allegation from a county school on the allegation that they had negro blood in their voins. The case is set for trial November 20th, and promises to be sensational. Gilliand claims his ancestry can be traced for a hundred years. Should the allegation stand it will affect five hundred people in Buncombe, Madison and Henderson counties.
